On a night in December, Catherine (Michael Ann) Dominick, BVM boards a bus at Mount Carmel in Dubuque, Iowa, to see Christmas lights in Murphy Park with 12 of her BVM Sisters. She's been waiting for this day for a long time.

“Oh, I loved it,” she says with a big smile. “Just seeing so many lights in the park. It was so beautiful.”
Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, I wish to once again extend our sincere gratitude. The outpouring of support for the BVM mission humbles our community. Because of you, the BVM Legacy of Love remains strong after 185 years.

We have prepared Perspective, our annual report, to share the impact you have collectively made between Sept. 1, 2017 and Aug. 31, 2018. Perspective acknowledges donors whose contributions over the past year, or cumulatively, have made them a member of one of four Donors of Distinction categories.

It is important to know that to best utilize the resources you have entrusted to us, we have made the decision to publish our full listing of nearly 5,000 donors in an electronic version only. The electronic donor listing can be found by visiting our website. I hope you enjoy reading how your generosity made our sisters and the many lives they are a part of so very special.

While we do our best to check and recheck our list for accuracy, we also acknowledge that we are human and may make mistakes. If you notice that your name has been omitted or misspelled, please accept our apologies and contact the Office of Development so necessary corrections can be made. We appreciate your understanding.

As I reflect on the year, I am reminded of the loyalty that you exhibit to our sisters. Together we were able to provide new dining room chairs and park benches at Mount Carmel for our retired sisters, six new scholarships to preserve the BVM Legacy throughout the country, disaster relief to those affected by fires and floods, food to those who had none, and so much more that helped others in big and small ways.

This letter to you has not been easy to write as it will be my last. I have accepted a position with another employer—one that will challenge me in new ways and greatly benefit my family.

I have had the privilege of serving as the director of development for the past three years, and I have valued the chance to meet many of you at Masses, alumnae luncheons, and donor events, as well as through the thousands of personal notes I have received and written.

I simply cannot express the appreciation I have for all that you do to move the BVM mission forward. I leave this place knowing the Office of Development and the BVM community will continue to assist you as you choose to partner with us.

I join you as a person forever touched by the BVM spirit and will continue to make a personal investment in the sisters and those they serve as I transition into the next phase of my professional career.

Once again, thank you for all you do for the Sisters of Charity, BVM. May God continue to bless you and your loved ones.

Gratefully,

Andy Schroeder
Director of Development

The Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary is recognized as a nonprofit, tax-exempt, religious organization by the State of Iowa and the Federal Government.

Not long ago, this wasn’t possible. A small van that only carried four sisters seated and one in a wheelchair was one of Catherine’s only ways to participate in off-site activities. And her trip to the park to see the lights last year? Because her wheelchair sat so high, she could only look through the top of the door and the chairlift. She missed everything.

With fewer sisters able to be volunteer drivers, sisters at Mount Carmel began to rely on staff and the small van for their transportation needs. This meant many sisters were unable to participate in activities.

Then, in 2017 something wonderful happened. Donors came forward during a 24-hour online giving day to raise more than $35,000 to help purchase a new bus. It has space for up to 14 sisters who can now enjoy fun, off-campus experiences and provide those who are physically challenged the opportunity to enjoy the community. With sisters like Catherine in mind, the bus also features large windows on every side, allowing sisters to see the sights.

“It’s a dream come true,” says Julie Wessels, driver and Mount Carmel creative arts specialist. “The sisters absolutely love it. I never dreamt we would have anything this nice and so many sisters are benefiting.”

Since its maiden voyage last summer, the bus has taken the sisters on more adventures than Julie can count. A peek at her calendar shows it’s out nearly every day taking sisters anywhere they want to go.

“The sisters love it,” says Julie. “They ask me, ‘can we go here to see this? Or here for supper?’ and we just go. It’s wonderful.”

With a big smile, she shares about a recent outing to Dyersville, Iowa, for supper. “As we went to leave, a sister stopped me and said, ‘Wait! We didn’t go to the Field of Dreams yet!’ So we turned around and we went.”

For those unfamiliar with the reference, Dyersville is home to the movie set of the popular 1989 film, The Field of Dreams.

Having a larger vehicle opens the door to new possibilities. Lori Ritz, life and mission director, plans to drive sisters to area Catholic schools and beyond. Now more sisters can share the spirit of BVM Foundress Mary Frances Clarke and the BVM core values and mission with more people.

“The bus enables me to do more in terms of outreach and having sisters share their lives,” says Lori. “It’s a gift that keeps on giving.”

Whether it’s a trip to the craft store to buy yarn to knit scarves for victims of human trafficking or a trip to the local art museum to see an exhibit featuring BVM artists, the larger bus has brought bigger smiles to BVMs who have dedicated, and continue to dedicate, their lives to helping those in need.

The bus was a gift of joy, and to the donors who made it happen, BVMs are grateful.

“Thank you for making this day possible,” says Catherine. “I am looking forward to many more exciting rides.”

In all, more than 53 sisters were able to view Christmas lights in the park.

“It’s a dream come true. The sisters absolutely love it. I never dreamt we would have anything this nice and so many sisters are benefiting.”

—Julie Wessels

A Dream Come True
Jann Phillips (class of ‘60) first encountered the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary when she was a young girl at St. Paul Elementary in San Francisco.

“They treated us with respect,” she reflects. “They taught us manners, and they just made us good women.”

She continued at St. Paul High School across the street. To her, a BVM education was about so much more than learning assignments.

“It was a safe place for me,” she says. “My father was an alcoholic, so when I went to school, I always felt like I was surrounded by people who really cared. Whether you could afford the tuition or you couldn’t afford the tuition—they made it happen.”

Thinking of the teachers who impacted her life the most, she remembers Carlita Egner, BVM.

“Sister Carlita was kind and compassionate,” says Jann. “She was an excellent teacher and always willing to help you if you were struggling with your studies.”

Because of Carlita’s dedication, the school established a scholarship in honor of her more than 50 years at St. Paul schools. Jann’s daughter, Jaymi Philips (class of ’91), received the award when she was in the eighth grade for her service to the school, the community, and the church.

A high school librarian, Jaymi has spent 17 years in the classroom. She credits BVMs for her decision to be a teacher and to continue even when things were tough.

“I don’t think I would’ve stayed with being a teacher had Sister Immaculee Walsh, BVM not guided me in my first few years,” says Jaymi.

Throughout her teaching career, Jaymi has found inspiration and encouragement through letters from Immaculee and BVMs Maureen (Matteo) O’Brien, Karen Conover, and others.

That caring is something Jaymi truly appreciated when her grandmother died during her sophomore year.

“The day after she died, I insisted I was going to...

Welcome New Members!

The BVM Sisters Development Network (SDN) serves as a key connection between benefactors and the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Founded in 1987 with an original group of 11 sisters, today the SDN has 20 dedicated BVMs who assist the Office of Development. Over the past 30 years, 69 sisters have served on the SDN.

This ministry keeps our benefactors informed about congregational needs and serves as a means to thank donors for their generous support. Even more importantly, the SDN maintains personal relationships with our donors, sharing their family stories and keeping them abreast of events at Mount Carmel.

BVM Sisters Development Network

Meet three BVM sisters who share their reflections as new members.

Maureen Patrice Fury, BVM ministered as the chaplain at Mercy Hospital in Dubuque, Iowa, for 20 years, and Jean (Jean Allan) Beste, BVM came to Mount Carmel as a Regional Representative for the BVM congregation after serving in Kansas for more than 40 years. The two have lived together for more than a decade, so when Maureen decided to join the SDN, Jean joined too.

For Maureen and Jean, sharing the BVM mission with others and connecting with donors is the most rewarding part of being members of the SDN.

“Our donors are helping us,” says Jean. “They’re helping a lot of people by supporting our mission and core values.” Maureen and Jean regularly aid each other in writing letters to donors. “We’re sharing the BVM community with them and what we have done . . . it’s a good ministry,” adds Maureen.

Eileen (Robertrese) Powell, BVM came to Dubuque from Oakpark, Ill., where she taught ESL classes for more than a decade. “It’s just a way to still be in mission with other people who are interested in the same goals and values as we [the BVMs] are,” she says with a smile. “I’m just grateful to be able to continue to serve in this small way.”

BVM Sisters who helped shape the values of many of our benefactors in their formative school years have found a special way to continue that connection as part of the SDN.
Over the years, donors have given various gifts to support the life and mission of the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary as well as to provide for the care and comfort of BVMs living at Mount Carmel.

But sometimes support comes in unique forms or from someone who may not even know the BVMs.

Enter Elle Hagedorn, senior manager of media relations and communications for the National Basketball Players Association.

During the Men’s NCAA Basketball Tournament, often referred to as “March Madness,” Elle was inspired by Loyola University Chicago’s team chaplain, “Sister Jean,” who, along with her Ramblers, rose into the international spotlight as the Cinderella team fought their way into the Final Four.

Taught by Catholic sisters for 12 years, Elle was inspired: “I cannot tell you how much of a positive influence these women have had on my life and after following Sister Jean and reading the New York Times article, I told myself I would do something to give back.”

Elle reached out to Development Director Andy Schroeder to discuss how she might help the BVMs. “It was quite a surprise to get a call from a young person asking if there was a way they could help raise money for the congregation,” shares Andy. “I was impressed with how Elle presented her idea and the research she put into organizing an online fundraiser.” Elle, with the blessing of the BVMs, created a special online donation page to honor the work of the BVMs and raise money on their behalf for a worthy charity.

Humbled by Elle’s intentions, Sister Jean requested that money raised go toward an organization near and dear to her heart, Big Shoulders, a Chicago-based nonprofit that supports Catholic schools in the city’s neediest communities through scholarships to low-income students.

“Sisters of Sister Jean Embrace Her Loyola Team and Marvel at Her Fame,” Elle learned that Sister Jean is one member of the Sisters of Charity, BVM.

Humbled by Elle’s intentions, Sister Jean requested that money raised go toward an organization near and dear to her heart, Big Shoulders, a Chicago-based nonprofit that supports Catholic schools in the city’s neediest communities through scholarships to low-income students.

As a former Division 1 basketball player for Harvard University, Elle planned to tap into her “large network of Catholic, basketball-loving people” to help raise funds.

Because it was the Final Four, she asked for donations with a “4” and set a goal of $4,000.

With the support of her colleagues, family, friends, and social media networks, Elle raised more than $3,000 within one week.

“She gave so much joy to the people who were following March Madness,” says Elle. “I thought this was a small thing that we could all do to give back to her and recognize her for the life of service she and her fellow sisters have lived.”

Elle never had a direct interaction with a BVM Sister and yet was compelled by the actions of one to do something to help.

While BVMs may never have had the privilege to meet Elle, they’re grateful that she chose to honor them in such a special way.

It’s a reminder that the BVM Legacy of Love continues to inspire people to do good every day when you least expect it.

Sisters Welcome Donors in Prayer

Every year, BVMs welcome donors and friends to join in prayer at two special liturgies. During the Benefactor Mass at Mount Carmel in Dubuque, Iowa, and the Felician Sisters’ Convent in Chicago, sisters were pleased to thank more than 250 benefactors in person. The Memorial Mass at Mount Carmel offered over 140 friends and family members the opportunity to remember and pray for dearly departed sisters.

For a Mass schedule, visit: bvmsisters.org/join-us-for-prayer.
