

“To live a life of love is to have the power and courage to respond to all people and events with compassion that seeks the well-being of the other and the common good.”

—BVM Core Value of Charity

Dear Friends,

Charity is one of four core values lived by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary and those with whom they work as we respond to critical human situations. The last year showed its share of critical situations as the continuing coronavirus pandemic exacerbated human suffering in the U.S. and around the world. Helping others through these tough times became more important than ever.

You, our friends and donors, rose up once again with compassion. You offered unwavering support through friendship, gifts, prayers, and other remembrances. We were able to advance the BVM core values of freedom, education, charity, and justice alongside you during these months of uncertainty.

We are profoundly grateful for your generosity to the BVM sisters. In this issue of Salt, we include our annual report, BVM Perspective, to recognize many of the ways you joined with us during the last fiscal year between Sept. 1, 2020 and Aug. 31, 2021.

Fundraising appeals during this last fiscal year focused on providing financial assistance to charitable organizations that help people in need of basic necessities and supporting early efforts for a collaborative archives project to preserve the vibrant BVM heritage. In the following pages, we highlight some areas where your gifts allowed us to help others and live out the BVM core values.

BVM Perspective acknowledges donors whose cumulative contributions or contributions over the past fiscal year made them a member of a Donor of Distinction giving circle. BVM Monthly Partners honors friends who contribute monthly. Mary Frances Clarke Society honors those whose lifetime giving reached $10,000 or more. Mount Carmel Partners honors friends who show their generosity with gifts of $1,000 or more during a fiscal year. Legacy Partners Society honors those whose commitment to the future of the BVM sisters is demonstrated through estate plans.

Beyond the Donors of Distinction named in this annual report, a full list of over 4,000 donors is available at bvmsisters.org. An electronic donor listing preserves resources and facilitates regular updates.

We appreciate your understanding as we make every effort to recognize all contributions during the fiscal year and to protect the privacy of donors who request anonymity. However, we are aware that mistakes can happen. If you notice your name is omitted, misspelled, or incorrectly identified, please accept our sincere apologies and advise the Office of Development of the inaccuracy.

Thank you again for all you offer of yourselves to the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We simply could not continue the work we do without your commitment, friendship, and prayers.

Even though we longed for a return to calmer and more predictable days, this past year presented many unexpected challenges. During these unprecedented times, we recognize more than ever how relationships with one another give meaning to life. Our hearts reach out to each of you as we strive to live with loving courage and to respond with compassion for the well-being of others. May you and your loved ones be surrounded by a multitude of blessings in the year ahead.

With deep gratitude,

Donor Profile: Marian Wolters

A BVM Girl at Heart

by Kari Litscher

Marian Wolters met the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary as an eighth grader in 1951 when Our Lady of Peace High School (OLP) opened in St. Paul, Minn. The school for girls was very successful, and Marian found herself one of a 1,000 young women empowered by these “well-educated, forward-thinking women.” She was significantly influenced by their passion, maturity, and discipline. While a junior at OLP, she took her first art class that changed the trajectory of her life.

That art class unlocked a passion and revealed an artistic gift. With the help of the BVMs, Marian was accepted to the art program at Clarke University in Dubuque, Iowa. There, Marian continued to be under the tutelage of BVMs. She made many friends at Clarke, including a classmate, Pat Nolan, who later went on to become a BVM.

Marian enjoyed her time at Clarke and was able to spend a semester in Vienna, Austria, as part of the Institute of European Studies (IES). Later, she and classmate Judy Conway applied to Hallmark, where Marian began work as an artist. After a year, Marian decided to return to school and received her B.S. degree in Art Education.

After graduation, Marian was reunited with former classmate and dear friend Pat at Columbus Catholic High School (CCHS) in Waterloo, Iowa. Marian taught with four different orders of sisters at CCHS but always thought of herself as a “BVM girl.” She felt the BVMs were “so human, so real.” She enjoyed their time as coworkers and friends.

One of her favorite memories was watching a group of sisters getting out of the big white car in which they carpooled each day. She could not “believe how many nuns could fit into a car.” Marian also formed a strong friendship with Joan Newhart, BVM, who used Marian’s classroom every day to teach religion class.

After three years of teaching, Marian moved on and used her artistic talents in a new way. Becoming a “Gift Wrap Specialist” was not initially in her plans. But after joining the 3M corporation in St. Paul, Marian was part of the team that developed a special “flat” bow—a bow that lays flat until you pull the inside ribbons that become the banding and the bow (photo, l.). This famous invention was perhaps only secondary to her teammate Art Fry’s invention of the Post-it Note.

Whether she was a student, teacher, or designer, BVMs “have always had a special place in my heart.”

—Marian Wolters

In 1996, Marian retired from 3M after 30 years of service.

Whether she was a student, teacher, or designer, BVMs “have always had a special place in my heart.” Marian reminisces about the many blessings she has had through their friendship, counsel, and leadership . . . dating back to when she was a young girl. She fondly remembers BVMs Mary Annette, who was her homeroom teacher for three years, and Mary Jean Joseph, who taught Office Practice at OLP. In 1986, Marian and Mary Jean returned to Marian’s alma mater for the dedication of the new chapel at Clarke University.

Marian celebrated her 85th birthday in January with one more BVM memory . . . being included in the Salt Donor Profile.

Thank you, Marian, for your continued support over the years. We cherish you . . . you truly are a “BVM girl.” ■

Blessed to Be a Blessing: Ron MacDonald and Jerry Gantner

A Lifetime of Giving and Serving

by Kari Litscher

Grateful hearts and a deep desire to serve others compel Ron MacDonald (l.) and Jerry Gantner to consistently remember the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary with their donations.

Ron and Jerry have spent their lives giving and serving. As a young man, Ron served as an unofficial “translator” for Austrian students at his home parish with School Sisters of Notre Dame and began teaching fifth grade at Holy Name School in Wilmot, Kenosha County, Wis., in 1959.

The school needed a teacher and Ron, “with no teaching background or prior experience whatsoever” stepped up and took on the responsibility of educating and leading the children. “When your uncle is the priest and the pastor, you go where you are told to go,” Ron laughs.

During that time, Ron became close with teachers at Holy Name—BVMs Ann Daniel O’Neill and Lilia Spelley. They would often take their breaks together. Lilia would use that time to provide wise counsel to the new teacher, presenting her advice in a gentle and reflective manner. The friendship was an important one, and even after Lilia moved on to other schools and locations, they remained in touch. Ron even had the chance to visit her in Long Island, N.Y.

Although Ron says that he was a “strict teacher,” when he runs into former students, they tell him that even though he was firm, they learned from him because they knew he cared about them. And that he did—Ron deeply cared about his students and others in his care.

Jerry worked in nursing for many years. He served as a home health nurse and geriatric technician, offering his expertise in Milwaukee at Wheaton Franciscan Home Health Care and Madison Hospice. Jerry was one of the first to work in the AIDS ministry in Milwaukee. Through his compassionate work, he met Diane M. (Damaris) Barabe, BVM.

Diane was involved in AIDS ministry and in women’s prison ministry. Soon, the three, became very close—sharing a beautiful friendship, giving their time together in service, and sharing a passion to help those in need.

At Diane’s 50th jubilee celebration, Ron shared, “Diane, you ARE a Sister of Charity of the BVM. Let’s look at what that means. First, is ‘Sister.’ You are a sister to all of us here today. Next, is ‘charity.’ Charity is another word for love. With all of the love that you have given, you are the true meaning of love. Lastly, is ‘of the BVM.’ Diane, you are like the Blessed Virgin Mary to all of us here in Milwaukee.”

Today, Ron and Jerry spend most of their time volunteering. They believe that “you better give back.” When asked why they continue to give to the BVMs, Ron responds, “We have always been so impressed with how BVMs help each other and others. We keep giving because, unlike other organizations, when you give to the BVMs, the money actually goes to the effort.”

The men reminisce and marvel at how they receive handwritten thank you letters from the BVMs. “Even [former BVM President] Sister Teri Hadro, with how busy she was, would always find the time to write back and thank us. She even teased us, saying that we trained her how to write thank you notes with a personal touch. But really, we are the ones blessed with how the BVMs have personally touched us.” ■

The BVM Sisters Development Network (SDN) serves as a key connection between benefactors and the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Founded in 1987 with an original group of 11 sisters, today the SDN has 22 dedicated BVMs who assist the Office of Development. Over the past 35 years, more than 70 sisters have served on the SDN.

Connections between Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary and donors are long-standing and deep.

Many ties began as teachers and students in grade school and continue because of shared values and respect for the BVM mission.

To keep the bond strong, members of the Sisters Development Network write, email, and call benefactors. ■

“I am happy and delighted to be back in the Development Network and a part of communicating with our generous and supportive donors. I enjoyed sharing life experiences with them as a BVM, and I look forward to hearing how life is going for each of them!”

—Marge Sannasardo, BVM

“I joined the Development Network because after arriving at Mount Carmel Bluffs on June 3, 2021, I found myself lost without my former ministry. I decided that writing or calling our donors was something I could easily do. I feel I am contributing a tiny bit to the community, so I am happy with my choice.”

BVMs and Donors Contribute to Food Banks and Pantries Blessing Those in Need

Charity: “To live a life of love is to have the power and courage to respond to all people and events with compassion that seeks the well-being of the other and the common good.”

Charity, as one of the core values of the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, led the congregation to act when the pandemic caused our sisters and brothers to be in dire need of basic necessities. This harsh reality prompted the BVM Leadership to forego the usual fall annual appeal. Instead, BVM leadership invited sisters and donors to join in mission to give financial assistance to charitable organizations that assist people in need across the U.S.

BVM sisters pooled their stimulus checks. Donors sent in generous contributions. BVMs and associates referred potential recipient food banks, food distribution centers, and food pantries. The result was tremendous with 120 organizations receiving support.

“The stimulus checks gave rise to an unexpected blessing for us,” says former BVM President, Teri Hadro. “Helping to provide food puts legs on our daily prayers for those bearing the brunt of the pandemic. Following the charism of BVM Foundress Mary Frances Clarke, we ‘seek out and attend to those in need.’ We hope helping feed the hungry lessens their suffering, at least for a little while.”

We have received an outpouring of gratitude for this appeal from the recipients of the donations. Several pantries expressed how the additional support was vital as more families became food insecure due to circumstances associated with COVID-19.

Some pantries not only saw an increase in the number of people in need, but the need itself was greater due to exposure, quarantine, and job-related issues.

John Griffin of Loaves & Fishes Food Pantry in Charlottesville, Va., stated that they “needed to increase refrigeration and freezer capacity . . . when a family came to us, they went home with 100 lbs. of fresh produce, milk, eggs, and frozen meat.”

Lisa Nakano, Donor Relations Manager of Hawaii Foodbank, Inc., shares that one in six people, including almost 90,000 children, need help getting food. Last year, the foodbank distributed over 18.3 million pounds of food and four million pounds of fresh produce to islanders in need. With your gift, they were able to make 12,500 meals for children, families, and seniors in their Honolulu community.

The New Start program, part of the Assistance League Chicagoland West (ALCW), sees the lack of food as only one part of the equation. A poorly equipped kitchen is another. Without pots, pans, dishes, and silverware, making meals is difficult. ALCW

Two fundraising activities in fiscal year 2020–2021 focused on helping address dire needs for basic necessities.

More than $138,000, from 887 gifts helped supply food banks, food distribution centers, and food pantries in an effort to provide food to the hungry during the pandemic.

Without you, our donors, this would not have been possible. We are grateful for your partnership in helping organizations have the funds to purchase food and supplies for those in need. Your support has helped us shine a light in this dark and unusual time. ■

PRESERVING THE BVM STORY

Donors Help Preserve the BVM Archives

We offer heartfelt gratitude to all of our donors who helped us raise funds to preserve our vibrant BVM heritage. BVMs have always been pioneers, arriving to teach on the American frontier and establishing schools as settlers moved West. Over 186 years, BVM sisters served in 21 states and three countries.

BVM history is American history. Early members had the foresight to save records from the beginning. Our archives document the lives of nearly 5,000 sisters and their ministries through photographs, ledgers, sheet music, poetry, writings, and artwork created by sisters.

But these archives tell a story beyond the BVMs. They tell an American story of progressive women and educators.

By collecting, preserving, and facilitating access to our archives, the congregation demonstrates awareness of our rich legacy. In addition, it promotes understanding and celebrates our unique character and place within church and society. These archives capture the spirituality and mission of the congregation.

Previously housed in the BVM Center (now deconstructed) at Mount Carmel in Dubuque, Iowa, and currently housed at 40 Main St. in Dubuque, and in storage, the BVM archives will eventually need a new, permanent home.

We are joining seven other Midwest congregations in a first-of-its-kind collaborative archive to tell the stories of women religious who shaped this country and its people. The proposed plan is to construct a shared facility on the campus of Saint Mary's in Notre Dame, Ind., with repositories of digital and physical archives telling the stories of at least eight congregations.

The BVM collection would move to a new central location to benefit historians, scholars, the public, and sisters' friends and families. Committee members representing the congregations are working through logistics, construction, funding, and staffing.

Each religious congregation will contribute its share of the total cost based on the size of its own collection.

BVMs are proud of our extensive archives. We anticipate that our collection will be in the top three of participating congregations, in terms of size. Approximately 1,300 linear feet will be devoted to BVM archives. Our share of construction and start-up costs is estimated to be at least $1 million.

Two fundraising activities in fiscal year 2020–2021 focused on Preserving the BVM Story.

More than $74,000, from 551 gifts helped begin the process of preserving BVM history.
